Jewelers Mutual offers commercial coverage for damage to customers' jewellery

Jewelers Mutual Insurance Company, Neenah, Wis. – Chipping a customer's diamond while setting it into a new mounting can ruin any jeweller's day. To cover that type of damage, Jewelers Mutual Insurance Company, which specializes in insuring jewellery businesses throughout Canada and the United States, now offers Work or Operations Coverage as an addition to its Jewelers Block policy in Canada. This is great news for jewellers!

Canadian jewellers who are already Jewelers Mutual customers can contact their broker to add the coverage immediately, or they may add the coverage when their Jewelers Block policy renews. Commercial jewellers interested in insuring with Jewelers Mutual should call toll-free 800-558-6411.

Coverage highlights:

- Work or Operations Coverage covers damage that occurs while the storeowner and its employees are repairing, adjusting, constructing, manufacturing, processing, servicing, testing, or cleaning jewellery for the store's retail customers at their Jewelers Mutual-insured business.
- The coverage also applies to damage by an independent contractor hired to work at the insured store for the store's retail customers.
- Jewelers Mutual offers a range of coverage limits from $5,000 to $100,000 per occurrence.

This coverage does not protect the store's merchandise or property of others in the jewellery trade.

For more information, contact your Jewelers Mutual broker or call Jewelers Mutual's Customer Service associates at 800-558-6411.

These descriptions are a brief summary of coverage. This language is not part of the insurance policy and is not a substitute for the actual policy language.
